

MSCI Index Dividend Futures

Eurex is the leading global exchange in dividend derivatives across the leading global exchanges.

MSCI Indexes are underlying benchmarks for many derivative products such as options, futures and OTC derivatives. These derivatives have dividend risk implied in them. The MSCI Dividend Points Indexes segregate the dividend cash flow of the underlying MSCI Index.

The MSCI Dividend Points Index methodology accumulates regular cash equivalent in the underlying parent index on the ex-date of such distributions. The distributions are aggregated in the index and thus make up the total index performance of the MSCI Dividend Points Index. This is aligned with the treatment of regular cash distributions within MSCI's Daily Total Return methodology, noted in the MSCI Index Calculation methodology.

What are the key benefits?

New business opportunities

- Directional views on dividends – trading of house views on earnings and distributions
- Hedging of dividend risk – macro exposure, structured products, equity options
- Opportunistic arbitrage trades related to dividend
- Diversification
- Reduced counterparty risk
