Eurex would like to point out that determination of the Eurex Processing Potato Index (EPPI) does currently not take place. Index determination will only start again at the beginning of this year's next marketing season by end of October. Until then, the respective fields on the Eurex website will not display any value (see www.eurexchange.com > Trading > Products > Commodity Derivatives > Agriculture Derivatives > European Processing Potato Futures - FEPP).

Please be advised that the values displayed in the Eurex® system (such as "U/L Close Price" in the Settlement Price Overview window), in standard reports and in statistics (www.eurexchange.com > Market Data > Statistics) are only used for technical reasons and do not represent an index until re-start of index determination.

For any questions you may have please contact Derivative Trading Operations at tel. +49-69-211-1 12 10.
