Xetra Release 14.0: Publication of documents

Dear Sir or Madam,

In connection with the introduction of Xetra Release 14.0 scheduled for 28 October 2013, we have published today the following documents:

Functional:

- Security Administration Manual
- Xetra J-Trader User Manual, Preliminary Version

Technical:

- Front End Installation Guide
- Front End Operations Guide
- Common Front End Sizing Guidelines
- Common Report Engine User Guide
- Xetra Instrument Reference Data Guide

The Security Administration Manual serves as a guideline for Xetra Security Administrators for set-up and administration of user rights. It describes the authorisation concept of Xetra and its implementation in the Xetra system.

The Xetra J-Trader User Manual, Preliminary Version describes the graphical user interface "J-Trader" for Xetra Release 14.0. This document familiarises users with supporting trading functions, new features and special characteristics of Xetra Release 14.0. The final version will be published on 14 October 2013.

The Front End Installation Guide provides a guideline for installing the Xetra Release 14.0 front-end software on the MISS and workstation.

The Front End Operations Guide contains a guideline for operating the Xetra Release 14.0 front-end software on the MISS and workstation.

The Common Front End Sizing Guidelines address network and system administrators and support them in planning the network, hardware and system configurations.

The Common Report Engine User Guide describes how Member firms can gain access to the Common Report Engine and the procedure for downloading the reports. Please bear in mind that extensions/enhancements to the Common Report Engine can also be made outside of Xetra Releases, which may lead to this document being updated and re-published. In such case, we will inform you in due course by means of a Xetra circular.

The Xetra Instrument Reference Data Guide contains an overview of the reference data services for Xetra Members which can be accessed via the Xetra website www.xetra.com and the Common Report Engine.

The documents were published on the Xetra website under the following path:
