The Management Boards of the Eurex Exchanges decided to adjust the holiday regulations for the products mentioned below due to changes in exchange trading days in the home markets:

1. MSCI Russia equity index derivatives (Eurex product codes: FMRU, OMRU):
   The Russian exchange Micex-RTS decided to open the cash market on the national holidays from January 3 to January 9, 2012. Accordingly, trading in equity index derivatives on the MSCI Russia Index (FMRU, OMRU) at Eurex will take place as well.

2. SENSEX Index derivatives (Eurex product codes: FSEN, OSEN):
   The Indian Bombay Stock Exchange has published the holiday regulations for 2012, according to which there will be no trading in the Indian cash market on January 26, 2012. Therefore, the Eurex maturity day will be shifted from January 26, 2012 to January 25, 2012.
