Following the end of Eurex Release 4.0 Simulation on 09 June 2000, the simulation environment will be re-opened on Tuesday 13 June 2000 for permanent simulation according to the calendar attached. Positions at the end of the Release 4.0 simulation will be copied across to the start of the permanent simulation.

The environment will remain open continuously, and no batch will be performed, until 03 July 2000. From Monday 10 July 2000 the pattern outlined in the Eurex Information from 31 March 2000 will apply.

Unlike the Release simulation, activities during the permanent simulation will not be tracked by Eurex.

Please note that although the environment will be open during weekends and evening/night hours, technical and functional support will only be available from 08.00 CET until 19:30 CET, Monday to Friday. Contact numbers are given on the attached calendar.
