To coincide with the closing times of the CCP simulation, the Eurex permanent simulation environment will close one hour earlier than scheduled at 18:00 CET each day until March 7, 2003. Owing to the extension of the CCP simulation until March 7, 2003 the Eurex simulation pattern for the first week of March will follow the same daily schedule as the one published for the last week of February. Simulation times on weekdays from now until March 7, 2003 will therefore be from 08:30 until 18:00 CET.

The advanced simulation environment is unaffected by this change.
