On December 24, 2002 and December 31, 2002 the German markets (Frankfurter Wertpapier Börse and Xetra) and the Swiss markets (virt-x and SWX) will be closed. Similarly, no deliveries via Clearstream Banking Frankfurt, nor payments via the Bundesbank will be possible on those days.

On January 2, 2003 (Bertoldstag) the Swiss markets (virt-x and SWX) will be closed and no trading will be possible at Eurex in Swiss products. No deliveries via SegaInterSettle Zürich, nor payments via SNB or its SIC system will be possible on that day.

The Management Boards of Eurex Deutschland and Eurex Zürich have therefore made the following decisions:

- On 24 and 31 December, 2002 all Eurex products will be closed for trading. No German, Swiss, Finnish, Italian, Dutch, French, US or Dow Jones products will be tradable on those days. Those days are also non-value dates for euro and Swiss Franks at Eurex, and no deliveries or payments can be carried out.
- On January 2, 2003 all Swiss products will be closed for trading and no Swiss equity products, index products, or CONF futures can be traded. The day is also a non-value date for CHF.

The holiday regulations for the Swiss holiday on January 2, 2003 will be forwarded in a separate circular.
