Release 3.0 Member Manuals

Dear Sir or Madam,

With the postal mail copy of this circular you will find enclosed a CD-ROM containing the production version of the Eurex 3.0 Member Manuals. The manuals are supplied as .pdf files, for which you will need a copy of Adobe Acrobat Reader 3.0 or higher. In case you do not have a copy installed on your system, a version for Windows NT, Windows 95 or Windows 3.x can be found on the CD-ROM. The file 'readme.txt' contains the relevant details.

For PCs running Windows 9x or Windows/NT with an Internet browser, the HTML file "rel3docs.html" should start up automatically when you load the CD-ROM. If this does not happen automatically the file can be launched from the Windows Explorer. On Windows 3.x you should start the file "rel3docs.htm" via the File Manager. The .html file contains Hyperlinks to each of the documents on the CD-ROM.

For PCs without an Internet browser the root directory files "bookdir.txt" or "bookdir.xls" (for Microsoft Excel 5.0 or higher) shows the contents of the CD-ROM with .pdf file names and manual titles. The manuals can be located in the "X:\books" directory structure, which is organised according to the different categories of documentation. The documents can be accessed by double-clicking on the file in the Windows Explorer or File Manager, as appropriate to your configuration.

The manuals will also be published in the "info for members" section of our web-site "eurexchange.com" and can be downloaded from there.
